

Fictional Name	Garet Skywalker
Job Title	The President of the United States
Demographics	51 years old 3rd year in his first tenure Have had dysthymic disorder (a form of depressive disorders) for 1 year 7 months, still on a secret treatment.

Goals and tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• President Skywalker holds an extremely tight schedule, he needs to be reminded regularly to take his medicine without causing others' attention.</li> <li>• He doesn't want anybody else except the therapist and the First Lady to know about his depression treatment because that will inevitably cause the public to doubt his leadership ability.</li> <li>• He needs to keep the status quo as steady as possible to make sure the election for his next election goes well.</li> <li>• Moreover, considering the drastic political combat, he wants to keep his doses in a highly safe condition that it's possible for other people to find out or try to poison him.</li> </ul>
Environment	Due to his changeful schedule, the environment for the President to take the dose is various, it can be some conference with Japan's Prime Minister, it can be some visits to public ceremony or just working in his office while his secretary would come in at anytime.
Quote	"The United States is a strong country, so as its people."